MEDIA STATEMENT: 11 April 2025

It's on: Democracy Sausage Day polling places confirmed for 3 May 2025

It's time to fire up the barbecue and set up the cake stall, with the 2025 Federal election announced for Saturday 3 May 2025.

Schools and community organisations that are planning a sizzle or cake stall can visit democracysausage.org to add their fundraiser to the map, making it easy for hungry voters to find them on election day.

Principal Sausage Technologist, Keith Moss, confirms preparations for the day are well underway at Democracy Sausage HQ.

“We’ve been working with our event partners at the Australian Electoral Commission to load up the 2025 polling places, and are happy to say they’re ready to serve up.

In 2022 we snagged information about over 2000 election day fundraisers, and we’re looking forward to putting even more on the map in 2025.”

The Democracy Sausage team encourages anyone running a polling place fundraiser to share it on the website, and voters to support their community by picking up a sausage or a sweet treat on election day.
